

HERE, A CUP OF COFFEE MEANS More Value

“The first thing they do over there is give you a cup of coffee. If you drink that cup of coffee with them, they say this commits you for 30 years of friendship. So, if we could just keep on drinking that proverbial cup of coffee around the world, we think that we’re helping out in the struggle for world peace.”

- Conrad Hilton, speaking about the opening of Hilton Istanbul Bosphorus
